Principal's Report - Mr. Lee

Better together is a great theme to start the new school year. Thank you to Mrs. DeLorenzo for helping us bring back our routines and normalcy as the year went on. Thank you to executive board for time and energy. Thank you to 5th grade families -families of decades of tenure with Lincoln; we would love to see you as time goes on—stop by and say hello! Thank you to theme day chairs for such an amazing day—phenomenal efforts all around. Looking forward to end of year activities along with a fresh start to the next year.

Class placement will be done and announced in August. Teacher placements will be shared as well. Updates will come out over the summer. Thank you, once again, for trusting us with your children!
